Siti is a polite and kind girl. She has many friends because she gets along well with everybody. She shows more responsibility this semester by completing her assignments on time and taking care of her personal and school belongings. Siti is also reliable when she is given a task. Without needing too much attention, she does her task wholeheartedly and with responsibility.

When facing problems, she doesn't give up easily. She will try to work on her own even though it takes a while. Siti also looks more confident this semester. She is not shy to show her work in front of the classroom and perform in the school play.
