Mentor Remarks:

Ya Rahman Ya Rahim, or usually called Ibrahim, has a good motivation in learning at school. He is focused on his study and diligently goes to school because he wants to be a successful man in the future. He does his homework and assignments with careful planning and effort.

Ibrahim likes all the subjects because he thinks that all of them are important. He always gets enthusiastic when he is studying in class. As a result, he gets good grades first semester. He does not follow any extracurricular activities at school, while in the foundation he joins English class, which is taught by volunteers twice a week.

Ibrahim's interaction with his friends and teacher is good at school. He is polite to everyone. His friends often come to the foundation for playing or studying together. He does not have problems at school.
